

1. Difference Between Islam and Eemaan

Islam and Eemaan are two closely related concepts in Islam, but they are not the same. Islam refers to outward actions, while Eemaan refers to inner belief. This difference is clearly explained in the famous Hadith of Jibreel.

Islam means submission to Allah through visible actions. These actions include Shahadah, Salah, Zakah, Fasting in Ramadan, and Hajj. The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said:

الإِسْلَامُ أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، وَتُقِيمَ الصَّلَاةَ، وَتُؤْتِيَ الزَّكَاةَ، وَتَصُومَ رَمَضَانَ، وَتَحُجَّ الْبَيْتَ إِنْ اسْتَطَعْتَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيلًا

“Islam is to testify that there is no god except Allah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, to establish prayer, give zakah, fast in Ramadan, and perform Hajj.”

(Sahih Muslim)

Eemaan, on the other hand, is related to belief of the heart. It includes belief in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and Divine Preordainment (Qadar). The Prophet (ﷺ) said:

أَنْ تُؤْمِنَ بِاللَّهِ، وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ، وَكُتُبِهِ، وَرُسُلِهِ، وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ، وَالْقَدَرِ خَيْرِهِ وَشَرِّهِ

“Eemaan is to believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and destiny, both good and bad.”

(Sahih Muslim)

The Qur'an also highlights this difference. Allah says:

قَالَتِ الْأَعْرَابُ آمَنَّا قُلْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوا وَلَكِنْ قُولُوا أَسْلَمْنَا وَلَمَّا يَدْخُلِ الْإِيمَانُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَإِنْ تُطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَا يَلِتْكُمْ مِنْ أَعْمَالِكُمْ شَيْئًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

“The Bedouins say, ‘We have believed.’ Say, ‘You have not believed; rather, say, “We have submitted,” for faith has not yet entered your hearts. But if you obey Allah and His Messenger, He will not deprive you of anything from your deeds. Indeed, Allah is All-Forgiving, Most Merciful.”

(Qur'an 49:14)

Thus, Islam is related to physical deeds, while Eemaan is related to faith and belief. A person may appear Muslim outwardly but may lack strong Eemaan. However, complete Islam requires both Islam and Eemaan together.

2. Difference Between رَّب (Rabb) and إِلَه (Ilah)

The words Rabb and Ilah are often misunderstood, though both relate to Allah. Rabb means Lord, Sustainer, and Controller, while Ilah means the One who is worshipped.

Rabb refers to Allah's Lordship (Rububiyyah). It includes creation, control, provision, life and death. Allah says:

“All praise is for Allah, Rabb of the worlds.”

(Qur'an 1:2)

Ilah refers to worship and devotion (Uluhiyyah). It means the only being worthy of worship. Allah says:

“There is no Ilah except Allah.”

(Qur'an 47:19)

These two words cannot be replaced with each other because their meanings are different. In Alhamdulillah Rabbil 'Alameen, Rabb is correct because the verse is praising Allah as the Sustainer of all worlds. Using Ilah here would ignore the meaning of Lordship.

Similarly, in La ilaha illallah, Ilah is essential because it declares exclusive worship to Allah. Replacing Ilah with Rabb would not reject false gods properly.

The Qur'an explains that even disbelievers accepted Allah as Rabb but not as Ilah:

وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

"And if you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say, 'Allah.' Say, '[All] praise is [due] to Allah'; but most of them do not know."

(Qur'an 31:25)

So, Rabb focuses on authority and control, while Ilah focuses on worship. Both are essential but cannot replace one another.

3. Tawheed Believed by Ancient Mushrikeen

The Mushrikeen of ancient times believed in Tawheed ar-Rububiyyah but rejected Tawheed al-Uluhiyyah. They accepted Allah as the Creator and Sustainer but worshipped others besides Him.

Allah says:

وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

"And if you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say, 'Allah.' Say, '[All] praise is [due] to Allah'; but most of them do not know."

(Qur'an 31:25)

This shows they believed Allah was Rabb. However, they prayed to idols, saints, and angels as intermediaries. Allah says:

وَمَا يُؤْمِنُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ بِاللَّهِ إِلَّا وَهُمْ مُشْرِكُونَ

“And most of them believe in Allah except while associating partners with Him.”

(Qur'an 12:106)

This belief had no value for them in the Hereafter because worship must be for Allah alone. Allah clearly states:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ

“Indeed, Allah does not forgive associating partners with Him.”

(Qur'an 4:48)

The Prophet (ﷺ) fought against shirk, even though the Arabs accepted Allah as Creator. This proves that belief in Rububiyyah alone is not enough.

True success requires belief in Rububiyyah and Uluhiyyah together. The Mushrikeen failed because they did not direct worship solely to Allah. Therefore, their belief did not save them from punishment in the Hereafter.

Q4. Which is the Root of All Tawheed and What are the Components of Tawheedul Uluhiyyah?

The root of all forms of Tawheed is Tawheed-ur-Rububiyyah, which means believing in the Oneness of Allah in His Lordship. This includes believing that Allah alone is the Creator, Sustainer, Controller, and Owner of everything in the universe. The Qur'an states:

أَلَا لَهُ الْخَلْقُ وَالْأَمْرُ

“His is the creation and His is the command.” (Qur’an 7:54)

However, Tawheed-ur-Rububiyyah alone is not sufficient for salvation. The Mushrikeen of Makkah also believed in Allah as Creator, yet they were not considered believers. This shows that the practical and most important form of Tawheed is Tawheed-ul-Uluhiyyah, which means Oneness of Allah in worship.

Tawheed-ul-Uluhiyyah refers to directing all acts of worship exclusively to Allah. Allah says:

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ

“I did not create jinn and mankind except to worship Me.”
(Qur’an 51:56)

Components of Tawheed-ul-Uluhiyyah:

According to the course material, the main components are:

1. Love (المحبة): Loving Allah more than anything else
(Qur’an 2:165)
2. Fear (الخوف): Fearing Allah alone in matters beyond human control
(Qur’an 16:51)
3. Hope (الرجاء): Hoping only in Allah’s mercy
4. Supplication (الدعاء): Asking help only from Allah
(Qur’an 40:60)
5. Reliance (التوكل): Trusting Allah completely
(Qur’an 5:23)
6. Obedience (الطاعة): Following Allah’s commands sincerely

7. Subservience (العبودية): Showing complete humility and devotion to Allah alone
8. Submission (الاستسلام): Fully surrendering to the will and judgment of Allah
9. All types and forms of Worship (جميع أنواع العبادة): Directing every form of worship—physical and verbal—only to Allah

All physical worship (prayer, fasting, sacrifice, Hajj) and verbal worship (du‘a, vows, seeking forgiveness) must be only for Allah. Associating partners in worship is Shirk, which Allah does not forgive if one dies without repentance (Qur’an 4:116).

Q5. Illustrate the elements should be avoided in Tawheed-ul-Asma’ was Sifaat with their Arabic names.

Tawheed-ul-Asma’ was Sifaat means believing in the Names and Attributes of Allah exactly as mentioned in the Qur’an and authentic Sunnah, without distortion, comparison, or denial. Allah says:

لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

“There is nothing like Him, and He is the All-Hearing, the All-Seeing.” (Qur’an 42:11)

To protect pure belief, Islam clearly mentions elements that must be avoided:

1. Tashbeeh (تشبيه – Comparison):

Comparing Allah’s attributes with those of His creation.

Example: Saying Allah’s knowledge is like human knowledge.

This is wrong because Allah is unique and perfect.

2. Tahreef (تحريف – Distortion):

Changing or misinterpreting the meanings of Allah's Names and Attributes.

Example: Explaining Allah's attributes symbolically without evidence.

3. Ta'teel (تعطيل – Negation):

Denying Allah's attributes completely.

Example: Saying Allah does not have attributes mentioned in the Qur'an.

4. Takyeef (تكيف – Asking "How"):

Trying to describe how Allah's attributes are.

Example: Asking "How does Allah hear?"

The correct approach is to believe without questioning the nature.

Allah says:

وَلِلَّهِ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ فَادْعُوهُ بِهَا

"And to Allah belong the best names, so call upon Him by them." (Qur'an 7:180)

The Prophet ﷺ warned against incorrect belief by teaching the companions to accept Allah's attributes as they are, without alteration or imagination.

Avoiding these four elements protects a Muslim from deviation and preserves the purity of Eemaan.

Q6. Describe the Significance of Memorizing 99 Names of Allah (SWT) with a significant exam ple.

Memorizing and understanding the 99 Names of Allah (Al-Asma-ul-Husna) has great spiritual importance in Islam. Allah says:

اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَى

“Allah—there is no deity except Him. To Him belong the best names.” (Qur’an 20:8)

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said:

إِنَّ لِلَّهِ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ اسْمًا مَنْ أَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ

“Allah has ninety-nine names; whoever memorizes them will enter Paradise.” (Bukhari)

This hadith does not mean only memorizing the names verbally, but also understanding their meanings and applying them in daily life.

Significance

1. Strengthens Eemaan: Knowing Allah’s attributes increases faith and certainty.
2. Improves Worship: A believer worships Allah with more awareness and sincerity.
3. Builds Strong Character: Allah’s names inspire good qualities like mercy, patience, and justice.
4. Enhances Du‘a: Calling Allah using relevant names makes supplication more meaningful.

Example

When a believer knows Allah is Ar-Rahman (The Most Merciful), he never loses hope, even after committing sins. He turns back to Allah in repentance.

When he knows Allah is Al-‘Adl (The Most Just), he avoids injustice and treats others fairly.

Allah commands:

وَلِلَّهِ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ فَادْعُوهُ بِهَا

“And to Allah belong the best names, so invoke Him by them”
(Qur’an 7:180)

Thus, memorizing the 99 names connects the believer’s heart with Allah, improves conduct, and leads to success in both Dunya and Akhirah.

Q7. Draw the Importance of Eemaan in Al-Qadaa’ wal Qadar (Divine Preordainment) in Islam.

Eemaan in Al-Qadaa’ wal Qadar means believing that everything happens by Allah’s knowledge, will, and wisdom, whether good or bad. It is one of the six pillars of Eemaan, as mentioned in the famous Hadith of Jibreel (Muslim).

The Prophet ﷺ said that true faith includes belief in Qadar, both its good and evil.

Allah says:

إِنَّا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدَرٍ

“Indeed, We have created everything according to a measure.”
(Qur’an 54:49)

Importance of Believing in Qadar

- 1. Gives Mental Peace: A believer remains calm during hardship, knowing Allah is in control.

2. Removes Arrogance: Success is not due to personal ability alone, but Allah's wish.

3. Encourages Patience: Difficulties are seen as tests, not punishments.

4. Builds Trust in Allah: One relies on Allah while still making effort.

Islam teaches balance: humans have free will and responsibility, but Allah has full knowledge and control.

The Prophet ﷺ said:

اُخْرِصْ عَلَى مَا يَنْفَعُكَ وَاسْتَعِزْ بِاللَّهِ وَلَا تَعْجِزْ

“Be keen on what benefits you, seek help from Allah, and do not give up.” (Muslim)

This shows that belief in Qadar does not promote laziness, but encourages effort along with trust in Allah.

Thus, Eemaan in Al-Qadaa' wal Qadar shapes a Muslim's mindset, strengthens patience, and completes faith, making it a core belief in Islam, exactly as taught in the course.
