

Q1. “Seeking Engineering knowledge is an Ibadah” — Explain it in the light of the Qur’an, Hadith, and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s saying

In Islam, seeking beneficial knowledge, including engineering knowledge, is considered an act of Ibadah when it is pursued with the right intention. Islam does not separate religious knowledge from worldly knowledge if that knowledge benefits humanity and is used in obedience to Allah.

Allah commands believers to seek knowledge in the Qur’an:

قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

“Say: Are those who know equal to those who do not know?”
(Qur’an 39:9)

Engineering knowledge helps society through infrastructure, technology, healthcare systems, and safety. When a Muslim engineer uses his skills to serve people honestly and ethically, it becomes worship. The Prophet ﷺ said:

طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ

“Seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim.”
(Ibn Majah)

Islam emphasizes intention (niyyah). If a student studies engineering to serve humanity, earn halal income, and strengthen the Muslim community, it becomes an act of worship. This aligns with the Islamic principle that actions are judged by intentions (Bukhari).

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said:

“Intelligence plus character — that is the goal of true education.”

This statement strongly matches Islamic teachings. Islam does not value intelligence alone; it values knowledge with character (akhlaq). A skilled engineer without honesty may harm society, while an engineer with faith and character benefits humanity.

The Qur'an praises those who use knowledge responsibly:

إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ

“Indeed, the most honored of you in the sight of Allah is the most righteous.”

(Qur'an 49:13)

Thus, engineering knowledge becomes Ibadah when combined with faith, sincerity, ethical conduct, and service to mankind. This understanding perfectly reflects the Islamic worldview presented in the course.

Q2. What is Trinity? Write down one popular Nullifier of Eeman existing in society.

Trinity is a Christian belief which states that God exists as three persons: the Father, the Son (Jesus), and the Holy Spirit, yet they are considered one God. From an Islamic perspective, this belief directly contradicts Tawheed (Oneness of Allah).

Allah clearly rejects this concept in the Qur'an:

لَقَدْ كَفَرَ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ ثَالِثُ ثَلَاثَةٍ

“They have certainly disbelieved who say, ‘Allah is the third of three.’”

(Qur’an 5:73)

Islam teaches that Allah is One, without partners, children, or divisions. Associating partners with Allah is known as Shirk, which is the greatest nullifier of Eeman.

One popular nullifier of Eeman in society today is Shirk in worship, such as calling upon saints, graves, or spiritual leaders for help instead of Allah. Many people claim they are only using them as intermediaries, but this practice was also done by the Mushrikeen of Makkah.

Allah says:

وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ

“And your Lord says: Call upon Me; I will respond to you.”

(Qur’an 40:60)

The Prophet ﷺ warned strongly against Shirk and said:

“The most feared thing for my Ummah is minor shirk.”

(Ahmad)

This nullifier exists widely due to ignorance, cultural practices, and blind following of traditions. According to Islamic belief, any form of Shirk nullifies Eeman, unless one sincerely repents.

Therefore, understanding and avoiding beliefs like Trinity and all forms of Shirk is essential to protect one’s faith.

Q3. Discuss Shirk: Meaning, Classification, and Manifestations.

Shirk means associating partners with Allah in His Lordship, worship, or attributes. It is the opposite of Tawheed and the greatest nullifier of Eeman. Allah says:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُونَ ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ

“Indeed, Allah does not forgive association with Him, but He forgives what is less than that for whom He wills.”

(Qur'an 4:48)

Classification of Shirk

1. Major Shirk (Shirk Akbar):

This occurs when someone worships others besides Allah or believes that someone shares Allah's divine powers. This form takes a person out of Islam.

Example: Worshipping idols, saints, or believing Jesus is divine.

Allah says:

إِنَّهُ مَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَقَدْ حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ الْجَنَّةَ

“Whoever associates partners with Allah, Paradise is forbidden for him.”

(Qur'an 5:72)

2. Minor Shirk (Shirk Asghar):

This does not take one out of Islam but destroys good deeds.

Example: Showing off in worship (Riya).

The Prophet ﷺ said:

“The thing I fear most for you is minor shirk: showing off.”
(Ahmad)

Manifestations of Shirk

- Making du‘a to other than Allah
- Swearing by someone other than Allah
- Using amulets believing they protect independently
- Seeking supernatural help from the dead

The Qur’an compares Shirk to total loss:

وَمَنْ يُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ فَكَأَنَّمَا خَرَّ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ

“Whoever associates partners with Allah is like one who falls from the sky...”

(Qur’an 22:31)

Thus, Shirk destroys faith, nullifies deeds, and leads to eternal loss if not repented from. Avoiding Shirk is the foundation of Islam and the core message of all Prophets.

Q4: Short notes on -

A. Al-Wala wal-Bara (Loyalty and Disavowal):

Al-Wala wal-Bara is an important concept in Islam which means loyalty and love for the sake of Allah, and disassociation from disbelief and falsehood. Al-Wala refers to loving, supporting, and standing with believers because of their faith. Al-Bara means rejecting disbelief, Shirk, and actions that go against Islam.

Allah says:

وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ

“The believers are allies of one another.” (Qur’an 9:71)

This concept does not teach hatred or injustice. Islam commands Muslims to be fair, kind, and just toward non-Muslims. However, a Muslim must not love disbelief or support ideas that oppose Allah’s guidance. Supporting disbelievers against Muslims is considered a nullifier of Eeman, as mentioned in the course.

Allah warns:

وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهُمْ مِّنْكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ مِنْهُمْ

“Whoever among you takes them as allies is indeed one of them.” (Qur’an 5:51)

Al-Wala wal-Bara protects a Muslim’s identity and belief system. It ensures that faith is based on Tawheed, not culture or worldly interests. When properly understood, it strengthens Eeman while maintaining justice and good character in society.

B. True Magic and False Magic:

Magic (Sihr) is strictly forbidden in Islam and is considered an act of disbelief. Islam recognizes two types of magic: true magic and false magic.

True magic (Sihr Haqiqi) involves cooperation with jinn and devils and can cause real harm, such as creating hatred between spouses or illness. Allah refers to this type of magic in the Qur’an:

وَمِن شَرِّ النَّفَّاثَاتِ فِي الْعُقَدِ

“And from the evil of the blowers in knots.” (Qur’an 113:4)

False magic (Sihr Khayali) is based on illusion and deception. An example is the magicians of Pharaoh during the time of Prophet Musa (AS), who made people think ropes were moving.

Allah says about magic:

وَمَا كَفَرَ سُلَيْمَانُ وَلَكِنَّ الشَّيَاطِينَ كَفَرُوا

“Do not commit disbelief.” (Qur’an 2:102)

Both forms are haram, and liking or approving magic is also disbelief. Islam allows protection only through Qur’an, du‘a, and Sunnah, not by using magic to fight magic. The Prophet ﷺ said:

“Allah has not placed a cure in what He has forbidden.”

(Bukhari)

C. Fardh ul Ayn and Fardh Kifayah:

Islam divides religious obligations into Fardh ul Ayn and Fardh Kifayah.

Fardh ul Ayn is knowledge and action required from every individual Muslim. This includes belief in Tawheed, prayer, fasting, and basic Islamic rules. Ignoring this knowledge is dangerous and may lead to disbelief, as mentioned in the Nullifiers of Eeman.

Fardh Kifayah is a communal obligation. If some Muslims fulfill it, others are free from sin. Examples include advanced Islamic studies, medicine, engineering, and defense.

The Prophet ﷺ said:

مَنْ يُرِدِ اللَّهُ بِهِ خَيْرًا يُفَقِّهْهُ فِي الدِّينِ

“When Allah wants good for someone, He gives him understanding of the religion.” (Bukhari)

Both types are important. Fardh ul Ayn preserves personal faith, while Fardh Kifayah ensures the survival and progress of the Muslim community. Neglecting either weakens society and Eeman.

D. Yaqeen (Certainty):

Yaqeen means complete certainty and firm belief in Allah, His promises, and the Hereafter. In Islamic texts, Yaqeen often refers to death, not a spiritual stage where worship ends.

Allah says:

وَاعْبُدْ رَبَّكَ حَتَّىٰ يَأْتِيَكَ الْيَقِينُ

“Worship your Lord until certainty (death) comes to you.”
(Qur’an 15:99)

Some people misunderstand Yaqeen and claim that once they reach spiritual certainty, they no longer need to pray or follow Shari‘ah. This belief is false and dangerous. Even the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ worshipped Allah continuously until his death.

True Yaqeen increases obedience, patience, and trust in Allah. It strengthens a believer during hardships and keeps him away from sins. The companions understood Yaqeen as commitment, not freedom from religious duties.

Therefore, correct understanding of Yaqeen protects Eeman and prevents deviation, as highlighted in the course material.

E. Istidraj (استدراج):

Istidraj refers to a situation where Allah gives a sinner worldly success, wealth, or ease while they continue in sin. This is not a sign of Allah's pleasure but a gradual test leading toward punishment.

Allah says:

سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُم مِّنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

“We will gradually lead them to punishment from where they do not know.” (Qur'an 7:182)

Many people wrongly assume that wealth and success mean Allah is pleased with them. Islam teaches that real success is faith and obedience, not worldly comfort.

Istidraj is dangerous because it makes a person careless about repentance. Instead of turning back to Allah, they become more attached to worldly life. This concept warns believers not to judge righteousness based on material success.

A true believer remains humble, thankful, and fearful of Allah even during ease. Understanding Istidraj helps Muslims protect their Eeman and stay alert.

F. Taaghoot:

Taaghoot refers to anything that is worshipped, obeyed, or followed instead of Allah. This includes idols, false gods, unjust rulers, or man-made systems that replace Allah's law.

Allah says:

فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِالطَّاغُوتِ وَيُؤْمِنِ بِاللَّهِ فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ

“Whoever disbelieves in Taaghoot and believes in Allah has grasped the firmest handhold.” (Qur'an 2:256)

Rejecting Taaghoot is a condition of true faith. A Muslim must believe that only Allah has the right to be obeyed absolutely. Preferring laws or ideologies over Shari'ah threatens Eeman.

Islam does not reject worldly systems, but it rejects any system that contradicts divine guidance. Recognizing and rejecting Taaghoot protects Tawheed and keeps belief pure.

G. Unifying Faiths – Sabeans – Deen-e-Hanif – Buhaira Rahib:

Some people promote the idea of unifying all religions, claiming that all faiths lead to salvation. They often misuse Qur'an 2:62. Scholars explain that this verse refers to people before Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, who followed their prophets sincerely.

The Prophet ﷺ said:

“Whoever hears of me and does not believe in me will be among the people of Hell.” (Muslim)

Deen-e-Hanif refers to the pure monotheism of Prophet Ibrahim (AS). After Islam, salvation is only through following the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Figures like Buhaira Rahib recognized signs of prophethood but did not represent a separate path to salvation. Islam rejects unifying faiths after the final message.

H. Tawassul – The Greatest Savior (الغوث الأعظم):

Tawassul means seeking closeness to Allah through lawful means. Permissible Tawassul includes calling Allah by His Names, good deeds, or asking a living person to make du‘a.

Allah says:

وَلِلَّهِ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ فَادْعُوهُ بِهَا

“To Allah belong the most beautiful names, so call upon Him by them.” (Qur’an 7:180)

Calling upon dead saints or believing someone like “Al-Ghawth al-A‘zam” can independently save people is Shirk. The Mushrikeen also claimed intermediaries, which Allah rejected.

Islam teaches direct connection with Allah. Any belief that removes this direct relationship threatens Tawheed and nullifies Eeman.

Q5. Turning away from Allah's Religion, not learning it or implementing it (is an act of disbelief) — Explain the Tenth Nullifier according to your understanding.

The Tenth Nullifier of Eeman refers to completely turning away from Allah's religion by not learning Islam, not practicing it, and showing no concern for it. This does not mean simple ignorance or weakness, but a deliberate attitude of neglect and rejection.

Allah says:

وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ ثُمَّ أَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا

“And who is more unjust than one who is reminded of the verses of his Lord, then turns away from them?”

(Qur'an 32:22)

Islam places great importance on seeking and acting upon knowledge. A Muslim is required to know the basics of faith and practice them. If a person completely avoids learning Tawheed, Salah, or basic obligations, and shows no interest in obeying Allah, this becomes an act of disbelief.

The Prophet ﷺ said:

مَنْ يُرِدِ اللَّهُ بِهِ خَيْرًا يُفَقِّهْهُ فِي الدِّينِ

“When Allah wants good for someone, He gives him understanding of the religion.”

(Bukhari)

Turning away from religion can happen in two ways:

1. Intellectual rejection – refusing to learn Islam
2. Practical rejection – knowing Islam but refusing to practice it

Both are dangerous for Eeman. Islam teaches that knowledge without action leads to Allah's anger, while action without knowledge leads to misguidance. This nullifier warns Muslims to protect their faith by learning Islam sincerely and implementing it in daily life.

Therefore, neglecting religion is not a minor issue—it threatens the foundation of Eeman and leads a person away from Allah's guidance.

Q6. Conceptualize the Concept of Zero and One – The Binary System (0 and 1) according to the Understanding of Tawheed.

The binary system, which is based on 0 and 1, can be understood beautifully through the concept of Tawheed in Islam. In computing, 1 represents existence or truth, while 0 represents absence or falsehood. Similarly, in Islam, Tawheed represents truth, and Shirk represents falsehood.

Tawheed means believing that Allah is One, without any partner. Allah says:

وَإِلَهُكُمْ إِلَهٌ وَاحِدٌ ۖ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ

“Your God is One God. There is no deity except Him.”

(Qur'an 2:163)

In the understanding of Tawheed:

- 1 (One) symbolizes belief in Allah alone
- 0 (Zero) symbolizes disbelief, Shirk, or rejection of Allah

Islam does not accept partial belief. Either a person affirms Tawheed completely or rejects it. Just as a computer system collapses if the binary code is corrupted, faith collapses when Tawheed is mixed with Shirk.

Allah says:

وَلَوْ أَشْرَكُوا لَحَبِطَ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

“If they associate others with Allah, all their deeds would be nullified.”

(Qur'an 6:88)

This concept teaches clarity in belief. A Muslim cannot believe in Allah and also rely on idols, saints, or false systems. Tawheed demands exclusive devotion.

Thus, the binary system reflects Islamic belief perfectly: Truth is One, and anything against it is false. This understanding strengthens Eeman and helps Muslims remain firm upon pure Tawheed.
